

Weinmann – Ready in an emergency

System solutions for emergency, transport and disaster medicine

3130-09-EN-0809-2

Weinmann Medical Technology offers diagnostic, therapeutic and life-saving devices and systems solutions of high quality.

We concentrate on the product lines Homecare, Emergency and Diagnostics. The experience gained in more than 130 years and our closeness to users make up the strong foundation for our positive development. Now more than 500 highly skilled employees contribute their know-how to making things happen.

Today we market our products in more than 55 countries with assistance from our branches in St. Petersburg, Paris-Igny, Shanghai, Neuenhof near Zurich; representatives in Singapore and Venezuela and partners in many other key markets. There we offer an extensive network of contacts who stand ready to advise our customers, handle their requests and provide service.

Weinmann's Business Unit Emergency: No two emergencies are exactly alike. Again and again rescue workers have to find their way through new and difficult situations while under great pressure. Our success in the areas of emergency, transport and disaster medicine confirms that we are headed the right direction with our innovative products designed with the user in mind. Among those products are the MEDUMAT ventilators with universal usage never seen before – ranging from one-button operation to primary and secondary care; AED and training devices in the MEDUCORE family; the suction device ACCUVAC and the portable LIFE-BASE systems; and our systems for Mass Casualty Incidents (MCI).
