

Weinmann – Live and breathe

System solutions for ventilation, sleep and oxygen medicine

3506.1-09-EN-0809-2

Weinmann Medical Technology offers diagnostic, therapeutic and life-saving devices and systems solutions of high quality.

We concentrate on the product lines Homecare, Emergency and Diagnostics. The experience gained in more than 130 years and our closeness to users make up the strong foundation for our positive development. Now more than 500 highly skilled employees contribute their know-how to making things happen.

Today we market our products in more than 55 countries with assistance from our branches in St. Petersburg, Paris-Igny, Shanghai, Neuenhof near Zurich; representatives in Singapore and Venezuela and partners in many other key markets. There we offer an extensive network of contacts who stand ready to advise our customers, handle their requests and provide service.

Weinmann's Business Unit Homecare: We see ourselves as a provider of complete systems and service packages which offer innovative care concepts and adapt to specific customer requirements.

Increasing numbers of people suffer from severe respiratory disorders such as weakened respiratory pump muscles, sleep apnea or pulmonary diseases. The disease implications, ranging from fatigue and depression to high blood pressure and heart attacks or stroke, bring radical restrictions to patients' daily routines.

The right diagnosis and therapy determine the well-being of the patient. With the help of our system solutions in ventilation, sleep and oxygen medicine, we provide the ideal foundation for doctors to put their knowledge to use. When the triad of patient, treating doctor and cost carrier functions correctly, the result is medically effective therapy that is also economical.
